Application form 2024

The Deakin and Combe Memorial Trust awards educational grants, on an annual basis, to candidates studying on agricultural and related courses. A limited number of grants are available for candidates who require financial assistance with their further education who are undertaking a course related to agriculture, and whose parent(s)/guardian(s) and/or grandparent(s) have made a contribution to agriculture in England or Wales. All relevant information should be contained in this application form. Your application form should be type-written and submitted either by post or email. Handwritten applications will not be accepted. Additional information in support of the application should be clearly marked.
