

NFU Dissertation Sponsorship Application Form

Thank you for applying for the NFU dissertation sponsorship scheme 2021/22

We are looking for students currently studying an undergraduate degree whose project or dissertation is linked to the following topics:

- British food retailers
- UK food brands, manufacturers or processors
- The sustainable supply chain
- Supply chain collaboration or engagement

The NFU is the UK's largest trade association, representing 55,000 farmer and grower members across England and Wales and is regarded as one of the most effective lobbying organisations in Europe, negotiating with governments and pressure groups at a local, national, European and international level.

Should you be successful you will gain the expertise of our highly knowledgeable teams and contacts, throughout the year offering help and guidance in completing your dissertation project. In return we ask for access to your work. You will also be invited to visit NFU HQ (subject to Covid19 regulations), and upon completion of your project you will be awarded £150.
